- There is no need to form a team, we create the teams as even as possible once registrations close. Teams will be published on the website.
- The weekly draw is shown on our Facebook page and published on the website.
- Touch Football boots are recommended to play in, as they grip the ground better, but normal sandshoes may be worn.
- On the first night, you need to wear any shirt and you will receive your team shirt from your coach to change into.
- Players can wear any socks or shorts.
- Players do not require a mouthguard.
- There are no extra training days. Coaches will train 30min before the game.
- No experience is needed, children learn as they play.
- A canteen is open to purchase food and drinks. A BBQ is often running to sell sausages on bread, steak and chicken burgers.
